Optional King's Theatre redevelopment donation

Now over a century old, the King's Theatre is in desperate need of a major redevelopment so that it can be enjoyed for generations to come. Without investment, the King's is at risk of closing and we cannot let this happen.

We have an ambitious £25 million plan that will not only keep the King's open, but ensure that it thrives. We're getting closer to that target but you can play a role in helping us reach it by donating when you book tickets to the King's Theatre.
